SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO COTTON.

Liberal advances made on Consignments to us for sale, or Shipment to our friends in Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York or Liverpool.

Wishing to aid our Planter friends in their efforts to secure for themselves the full benefit of their Cotton Crops, we have determined to make advances on Cotton consigned to us on the following easy terms:

On Cotton, for sale at discretion, advance seventy-five (75) per cent of its market value, charging interest on the advance until the Cotton is sold at the rate of seven (7) per cent. per annum.

On Cotton, to be held Thirty Days, advance fifty (50) per cent. of market value, charging the regular commision for advancing, 2½ per cent., and interest on the advance at the rate of seven (7) per cent. per annum.

On Cotton, to be held Sixty Days, fifty (50) per cent. of its market value, charging commission for advancing, 2½ per cent., and interest on the advance at the rate of one (1) per cent per month.

In all cases the advance will be based upon the market value of the Cotton on the day it reaches us. MERCER & ANDERSON. oct10d3m

GEORGE T. FRY, ATTORNEY AT LAW,

Begs leave to inform the good people of Atlanta, and also those of Fulton, DeKalb, and adjoining counties, that he has located his office in Ball's Building, East side of Whitehall street, in the said city of Atlanta, where he may be found and consulted upon business, every day (Sundays excepted) from 7 o'clock, A. M., to 6 o'clock, P. M. He will give diligent, careful, and prompt attention to all business confided to his care.

He will make a specialty of the following grades of business, to-wit: The collection of debts, settlement of all money demands, and of all demands growing out of contracts between man and man, all matters appertaining to, or growing out of, the Homestead Law.

Parties desiring to avail themselves of the benefits intended to be conferred by the Homestead Law, are respectfully invited to come to my office for any information they may desire concerning the said law. Also, will attend specially to all matters in Bankruptcy; and he begs leave to say to the unfortunate debtor, that the time wherein you will be allowed the full benefit of the Bankrupt Law, will expire on the first day of January, 1869; after that time you must pay fifty per centum of your indebtedness, or else you cannot have the benefit of the law, except by the consent of a majority, in number and value, of your creditors, which consent you will not be likely to obtain.—If you are in debt $300, or upwards, and feel that you cannot pay out, without subjecting yourself and family to great hardships and inconvenience, come to my office, and I will assist you to be relieved from all your distresses and embarrassments, by filing a petition for you for that purpose.

Be sure to make application before the 31st day of December, or else you will be too late! too late!

The citizens are specially invited to come to my office to consult me on any business they may desire to have attended to. They will always find me in my office, in a good humor, always glad to see you, and ready to give you a hearty, old-fashioned welcome, and will always be ready to attend to your business for you.

Office over Alexander's Hardware and Bradfield's Drug Store, stairway running up between the two, on the same floor of the Southern and St. Louis Life Insurance offices.

Respectfully, GEO. T. FRY.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 10, 1868.

Refers, by permission, to Gen. Wm. Terry, Wytheville, Va.; Gen. James A. Walker, Newbern, Va.; Hon. James S. Tipton, Judge of the 15th Judicial Circuit of Virginia, Hinesville, Va.; and Joseph Smith, Attorney at Law, Hillsville, Va. dec1-dly.

EVENING EDITION.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, DECEMBER 7.

PERSONAL.—We are pleased to see, says the Selma Times, that our old friend, Mr. G. W. Brosius, who has occupied the position of Conductor on the Georgia State Road, and was turned off by the Bullock dynasty, started on his first trip yesterday as Express Agent between this city and Rome, Ga. The company could not have made a better selection.

GEORGIA IN WASHINGTON.—It will be seen from our Washington yesterday's telegrams that both Christy and Wimpy claim the Congressional seat from the 6th District of this State. Christy holds the certificate of General Meade, and Wimpy that of Governor Bullock.

It will be seen from our dispatches of to-day that the credentials of Messrs. Christy and Wimpy were referred to the Election Committee of the House, and that those of Miller and Hill, Senators, are before the Senate to-day.

Mrs. George Batty.

We were pleased on Saturday to welcome home Mrs. George Batty, Principal of Atlanta Seminary, after an absence of several months North in the interests of her Institution. We are further gratified to announce that Mrs. B. was eminently successful in the object of her visit. Prominent personages in New York and Brooklyn, irrespective of political opinions, have contributed materially towards the establishment of her Seminary on a permanent basis. Among the more liberal subscribers to the enterprise we are permitted to mention the following persons, well known for their sympathy with every project which tends to advance the literary standard: Archbishop McCloskey, Horace Greeley, M. M. Pomeroy, (Brick,) Henry Ward Beecher, Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, and Mr. Mary E. Tucker. Owing to the encouraging promises received, Mrs. B. proposes in a short time to return to the scenes of her recent labors, as Financial Agent of the educational interests of her school, as well as of the city of Atlanta. She has every reason to hope that before her next return she will have secured ample means to perfect the work already so well begun. During her temporary absence the Atlanta Seminary will be conducted by an able corps of teachers, assisted by the pecuniary facilities already resulting from the recent visit to the North.

This estimable lady, by the interest she has manifested in the cause of education in Atlanta, is entitled to the highest encomium of its citizens; and we hope her most sanguine expectations will be realized.

THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE.—The Electors for the State of Georgia have been notified by Gov. Bullock to meet here on the first Monday in December (to-day) to cast the vote of the State on the Wednesday following. The new Code of Georgia, section 1333, provides that on the 20th day after the election shall have taken place, the Governor shall consolidate the several returns, and immediately notify those persons of their election who have received a majority of the votes cast, and require their attendance at the Capitol on the first Monday in December thereafter to cast the vote of the State on the Wednesday following at 12 o'clock M.

This section contains a great error, since the act of Congress passed in 1792, declares that the vote shall be cast on the first Wednesday in December, and such was the law of Georgia in accordance therewith, before the adoption of the Code.—See page 103 Prince's Digest, and page 246 Cobb's Digest of the laws of Georgia—acts passed by the Legislature of Georgia in accordance with the act of Congress, and almost in its very words.

We do not know how the error in the Code occurred, in the change from the one to the other. But so it is, the error exists, and the Governor of the State has required the Electors to meet at a time not recognized by the law. Whether he will still require them to meet and send the vote on to Washington with an official statement of the facts, and leave Congress to act as it sees fit, is yet to be seen. No matter how the question may be settled, one thing is certain, it cannot effect Mr. Seymour.

BLIND ASYLUM.—We are pleased to meet in our city Mr. J. D. Williams, the able and efficient Superintendent of the Blind Asylum at Macon. Mr. Williams is on a tour of the State in the interest of the Institution. For the benefit of the public we append the terms of admission:

The Academy receives into its School Department such youths, male or female, as are hopelessly blind, or incurably blind, to that degree which prevents education in the ordinary method, between the ages of eight and twenty-one years, of sound mind and free from bodily disease, and of good moral character and habits. The indigent of this State are taken without charge for Board or Tuition, being supported upon State appropriation. To those able to contribute wholly or in part towards their education, the charge will be graduated from the maximum of $250 to such sum as there means will authorize them to pay. All are expected to come provided with a supply of good, comfortable clothing, to be replenished by their friends or means provided therefor, from time to time, as it becomes necessary.

Blind men, not too old to learn a trade, will be received as Apprentices in the Department of Handicrafts on the same terms as pupils are received into School.

DEATH OF HON. CHARLES G. MCKINLEY.—Hon. Charles G. McKinley, Register in Bankruptcy in the Third Congressional District of this State, died Saturday morning, the 28th of November.

A movement is on foot to establish a rolling mill and nail factory at Rome, Ga. A stove factory is also to be established.

Boston claims to have the oldest minister in the United States, in the person of Father Cleveland, who is ninety-seven years of age.

Louis Ulbach has the largest income of any journalist in Paris. His pen brings him an income of nearly 80,000 francs a year.

The Georgia Election and the Augusta Election.

In the municipal election held on the 2d instant, in the city of Augusta, none but registered voters were permitted to vote, and a full vote was polled. The candidates were popular and representative men of their respective parties, and each side did its best in the work of polling the registered votes, without let or hindrance from the other side. Indeed, they had mutually covenanted and agreed that the election should be a fair, good-humored, orderly and peaceful struggle.

Let us, then, examine the result and compare it with the late election in Georgia. We find that the registration lists closed up on Tuesday night, in Augusta, as follows:

White voters, - - - - - - - - - 1,908
Colored voters, - - - - - - - - - 1,863

Total registration - - - - - - 3,771

In this vote the telegram of yesterday reports that the Democratic candidate for Mayor received eleven hundred and thirty-six majority. The vote, then, (we have not the actual figures), must have stood somewhere about as follows: For the Democrats 2,354, and for the Radicals 1,317.

We beg the attention of the reader to the comparison of these figures with the result in Georgia at the late Presidential election. It is charged that the Presidential election was fraudulent, because the Radical vote falls short of the registered negro vote, which was 95,168, and of the total registered vote of the State, which was 191,501. Here was a poll in which no vote was omitted. The registry showed just about the same relative proportion of voters as the State registry. The white majority in Augusta was only 45, and the white majority in the State was only 1,165. The official canvass of the late Presidential election in Georgia shows a total vote of 158,896, and a Democratic majority of 44,633, which they say must be the work of fraud and intimidation. The vote in Augusta was 3771, of which the Democratic majority was 1136, and here it is conceded there was no chance for fraud. But a majority of 1136 in a vote 3771 will give, in a vote of 158,896, a majority of 47,840!

What, then, is the clear and common sense inference in the whole business? The Radicals are compelled to see that, even under the most favorable circumstances, they cannot control the colored vote of Georgia, and the charge of fraud and intimidation in the State election is too transparently groundless to hide the fact.

If there was any point in all Georgia where they might confidently anticipate a solid black vote in their favor it was Augusta. There they had control of the city government—a strong press—active, influential and cunning party strategists and a white radical constituency of at least three or four hundred, as we suppose. At least, they had enough to consolidate and control the colored vote as far as it could be controlled in their interests; and what was the result? Their whole vote fell short of the colored registry five hundred and fifty, and we are compelled to believe that, in spite of all their efforts at least one-half of the colored registry voted with the Democrats.—Macon Telegraph

THE CUBAN REVOLUTION.—The New York Post publishes a letter from a Cuban gentleman, who analyzes the reports sent to this country from Havana, of the political condition of the island and the movements of the Spanish troops. He shows that the authorities have been much more embarrassed by the strength and vigor of the insurrectionary party than they have confessed, and it seems probable, even, from this analysis of the government reports, that the Spanish troops have met with serious reverses, and that the insurrection is extending to all parts of the island. The writer says:

One object of the Insurrectionists, as they profess, is to extirpate slavery, which has long been opposed and regarded as an evil by the Cuban party, as it is called, to distinguish it from the Spanish party. Another of their objects is to establish the independence of Cuba. They complain that they suffered from Spain precisely the wrongs which the colonies suffered from England. They have had Spaniards of no character put over them; every avenue for an honorable public career has been closed to men of Cuban birth; all the offices of honor or profit are monopolized by Spaniards, and they have to bear an oppressive burden of taxation, without receiving any benefits.

For these reasons they intend to assert their independence, to expel the Spaniards, and to set up a republic of their own: and Cubans in this city who are in correspondence with the insurrectionary leaders express a belief that the movement will succeed.

Henri Rochefort says in the last number of the Lanterne: "Let us call the attention of the French people to the most humiliating fact of all: the cowardice of the officers at the head of our army. The socalled Marshals—so-called, we say because Bonaparte conferred that title on most of them without any other cause than that they agreed to support his rotten throne—are, with two exceptions opposed to France engaging in any war. These men prefer showing themselves in their gorgeous uniforms at reviews to meeting the enemies of France on the field of battle. Their pseudo-laurels gained in Italy over that military mob called the Austrian army, satisfy them. Niel, who ought to have been court-martialed for his conduct at Solferino, despite his martial airs, is no less opposed to war than the wretched Robert, that greatest of all incapacities of the Crimean war. And what shall we say of Vaillant, the sybarite and imbecile, who prefers the position of a lackey to the Empress to a command in the army? Oh, Frenchmen, you were once proud of your army! Now it is commanded by hares, who yield obedience to a villain!"

RAILROAD BETWEEN FRANCE AND ENGLAND.—Something was said last year about a scheme for constructing a suspension railroad across the channel from Calais to Dover. The project was considered simply ridiculous. But not so—it is a serious matter. Science can accomplish anything. A French engineer (M. Chas. Boutet) has succeeded in convincing so many persons of the feasibility of the scheme that he has raised a company and the first steps have been taken. The proposed suspension bridge is to be composed of a net-work of iron cables, so arranged as to be able to sustain any train however heavily laden. M. Boutet has recently exhibited a model, in miniature, and the experiments made with it that were considered decisive of the success of the undertaking. He asks but six years for the completion of the work—thinks it may be done in less—when Paris and London will be suburbs of each other.—Sav. News.

LAND ADVANCING.—Several land sales have occurred in this and neighboring counties, during the past week. The large estate of the late Jesse Jackson brought a little over ten dollars per acre. A. A. Willet sold his place at nineteen dollars per acre. Other sales have been made, some as high as twenty-two dollars per acre. This movement in lands indicate better times ahead. Even at these prices, land is the best investment that can be made.

Ours is an agricultural country, and there is no country in the world where agriculture pays like it does in this. Our colored farm laborers have all got a pocket full of money, and are eager to commence making more cotton. Five years more of prosperity and our people will be rich again.—Americus Republican.

WASHINGTON, December 6.—There will be a quorum to-morrow.

It is not known when the message will be sent in, as its sanctity is carefully guarded.

McCulloch says the statements of his report are mere approximations, compiled from the reports of subordinates.

The American bark Electa, from Sicily for New York, with a cargo of brimstone, was lost in a terrific gale off Massala; the steward was lost.

Senators Hill and Miller, also, Col. Christie and Mr. Wimpy, from Georgia, are here. Christie holds Meade's and Wimpy Bullock's certificate as members of the House from the Eighth District.

NEW YORK, December 6.—The storm has ceased and the snow is fast disappearing.

It is reported that E. A. Pollard, author of the Lost Cause, has been appointed to clerkship in the New York custom house.

Grant has arrived and remains until Thursday next.

AUGUSTA, December 9.—The Republican meeting, held at the City Hall last night, was addressed by J. E. Bryant, formerly of Maine, but now member of the Legislature, who referred with pleasure to the fact that Georgia was again in the Union and entitled to all the privileges of any other State. He said that the Republican party was defeated honestly and fairly in the late municipal election, and he was willing to abide by the result. Resolutions were passed pledging anew fealty to the Republican party, and opposing further Congressional interference in the reconstruction of Georgia, which State is entitled to all the rights of a Federal State in the Union. The citizens of Augusta gave a complimentary supper to the troops under the command of Gen. Sweeney, last night, for their soldiery behavior and general good conduct while stationed in their city. The people speak in the highest terms of commendation of Gen. Sweeney and his entire command.

SAVANNAH, December 6.—A special police force was appointed and commissioned by the Mayor, two weeks since, for patrol duty on the outskirts of the city, composed mostly of German farmers and gardeners, who were also to relieve each other nightly in patrolling roads and guarding farms from the depredations of negros. Last evening Brodbacker and several others were patrolling Thunderbolt Shell Road, when, about 11 o'clock P. M., hearing loud halloing, approached the party and demanded to know the cause of the disturbance. Negroes, about a half a dozen in number replied threatenly, when Brodbacker arrested one and, giving him in charge of a party, advanced a few paces to make another arrest. At this moment he was suddenly fired into by a large party of negroes, about forty, who had before been concealed. Some sixty shots in all were fired, the patrol retreating before superior numbers. Mr. Brodbecker was killed the first fire. Three others of his party were wounded, two of them probably mortally. This afternoon an inquest was held upon the body and a verdict rendered that the deceased came to his death while discharging his duties as a special policemen, on the 5th of December, from a gun-shot wound in the face and head, from the hands of a negro, one of a party who were disturbing the peace on Thunderbold road. We earnestly recommend that the State and county authorities take action in order to protect the citizens of this county from the brutality of the negro population. There is considerable excitement. About thirty arrests have already been made by the authorities.

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, December 7.—Both Houses organized. The certificates of Christy and Whimpy, contestants for the Sixth Georgia District, were referred to the Election Committee. The Credentials of Miller and Hill, Senators from Georgia, are up in the Senate. The Clerk is reading the memorial of the negroes expelled from the Georgia Legislature. Menard, who claims to succeed Mann, from Louisiana, palpably a man of color, is on the floor of the House.

LOUISVILLE, December 7.—A gentleman and sister from Natchitoches, La., were lost on the steamer United States.

CINCINNATI, December 7.—The American was also burned, but lies against the bank. Of the ninety-six passengers only one is known to be lost. The United States' books were lost and reports conflict; the best authorities estimate the loss at 45 passenger, of whom 18 were ladies; 7 of the crew and 18 of the deck hands are among the lost. No Southerners.

STAR AGRICULTURAL WORKS. The Albany Cotton Gin Manuf'g Co. Manufacturers of the Celebrated "Star" Cotton Gins and Condensers, "Star" Threshing Machines "Star" Lever and Endless Chain Horse Powers, and other Agricultural Machinery.

Our "STAR" Cotton Gin and Condenser have taken first premiums in every instance where entered at Southern Fairs, competing with the best Gins of the country made by other parties.

At the two Great Fairs of the Mechanics' and Agricultural Association, held at New Orleans successively in November, 1866, and January, 1868, the "Star" Gin and Condenser took all at both Fairs all the premiums offered on Gins and Condensers, against a competition embracing all other Gins of any prominence in the country. Also at the last two State Fairs held at St. Louis, Mo., our Gin and Condenser took the First Premium against a powerful competition.

The Condenser attachment being new to most planters, we wish to say that it entirely obviates the necessity of a "lint room," as with it a Gin may be used in the open air and the sheet or bat as it is discharged from the Condenser is ready for the press. It effectually cleans the cotton of sand and dirt, and makes the work of ginning free from the danger of inhaling the fine particles of lint which otherwise fill the air.

N. B. We also make the most approved HORSE POWERS (both Lever and Railway) to drive our "Star" Gins, and also manufacture the celebrated "Star" Threshing Machines. We furnish Gins, with or without Condensers. For sale by our AGENTS and DEALERS generally. Our Complete Illustrated Descriptive Circular is sent, free of charge, on application by mail. LORILLARD'S "Yacht Club" SMOKING TOBACCO.

The best judges everywhere declare it to be the best for many reasons:
It is made of the finest stock grown.
It has a mild and agreeable aroma.
It is anti-nervous in its effects—
The Nicotine having been extracted—
And is perfectly free from drugs.
It leaves no acrid, disagreeable after-taste,
Does not burn or sting the tongue,
And leaves no offensive odor in the room.
Being very light, one pound will last as long
As two to three pounds of ordinary tobaccos.

GEORGIA PLANTERS' CONVENTION.—We call the attention of this body which meets in Macon, on the 10th. to the communication of Col. R. W. Phillips Chairman Agricultural and Internal Improvement Committee, in another column.

SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA.—The Supreme Court met at the City Hall this morning at 10 o'clock. Present Brown. McCoy and Warner, Judges. After organizing the Court adjourned till 9 o'clock to morrow morning, when it will enter upon the business before it.

Among the distinguished lawyers in attendance on the Court we are pleased to note the following, viz: Barney Hill, R. F. Lyons, O. A. Bacon, Macon; S. C. Elam, Willis A. Hawkins, J. J. Scarborough, C. T. Goode, —— Burke, Americus; R. J. Moses, Columbus; D. A. Vason, Albany.

MEETING OF CONGRESS.—Congress met on yesterday. The eyes of the whole country are now turned in that direction. We shall strive to keep the readers of THE CONSTITUTION fully posted with the latest advices by telegraph and through our exchanges from the seat of Government. Local politics being dispensed with for a time, we shall direct our attention to events transpiring at the National Capitol.

J. E. BRYANT OPPOSES FURTHER CONGRESSIONAL INTERFERENCE.—It will be seen from a telegraphic synopsis in our evening edition that J. E. Bryant made a speech to a Republican meeting in Augusta Saturday night, in which he took the position that "Georgia was again in the Union and entitled to all the privileges of any other State."

If the Republican party of Georgia and Congress will adhere to this position, it will secure peace and harmony to the State The Democrats having accepted reconstruction as a matter of fact, and not of choice, as accomplished by the Republican party, the latter should be satisfied with their own work and abide by it in good faith.

The Cotton Planters' Convention.

STATENVILLE, ECHOLS COUNTY, GA., November 30, 1868.

Gentlemen of the Georgia Planters' Convention:—I propose at the meeting of the General Assembly of the State in January next to introduce a bill to incorporate a company which will be known as the Georgia Cotton Planters' Association. The oject of this organization will be to establish direct communication between this State and Europe, in order to secure, first commercial advantages; secondly, gold for our cotton; and thirdly, laborers to cultivate our farms.

I regret, gentlemen, in consequence of professional engagements, that I cannot meet with you in convention, but hope through this communication to secure your counsel in connection with the aid of the press in consummating this great enterprise, which must bring relief to the oppressed people of our State, if properly carried out. To execute this plan, like all others of a similar character, we must have means. The bill, to obviate that difficulty, will authorize the President and Board of Directors to assess such a per cent, upon the cotton crop of the next season as will furnish a sum sufficient to purchase or have built a line of steamers to run between Savannah and Liverpool, and Brunswick and Liverpool, or any other ports of entry, as the interest of the company may require.

We suppose that enough of the planters of Georgia will become stockholders, (and I cannot see why any cotton planter should refuse,) to raise, by cultivation, two hundred thousand bales of cotton the next crop. An assessment of two per cent. upon that amount will raise nearly two millions of dollars as a capital stock to establish these lines, and that would be a small sum from each member of the company, in comparison with the great advantages that would accrue.

The cotton of each planter would be shipped to Europe, from Savannah or Brunswick, when packed and ready for market, free of charge, as the vessels would be the property of the company, and sold for gold, and, in returning, bring as many laborers, with all necessary supplies as the farmers may need, without expense, and thus all the difficulties which might arise upon this subject would be easily removed, and results grand and overwhelming will follow in its completion.

The establishment of these lines will secure commercial advantages.

I cannot see why the people of the South should ever be hewers of wood and drawers of water in subserving the Northern interest. Under the present system of transportation such is undoubtedly the case. The cotton planters of Georgia usually sell their cotton to the merchants located upon the various railroads of the State, and they ship it to the commission merchants on the seaboard, who sell it to other merchants, when it is shipped North, and the Northern merchants in turn ship it to Europe, where it passes through the hands of two or three other cotton dealers, before it reaches the factory, and the money arising from the sales, after deducting the enormous freight, drayage, and commission, all at the expense of the planter, is expended for the payment of goods. The losses sustained at present prices cannot be less on long cotton than ten cents on the pound, and five cents on short cotton, to the producer by this circuitous route; hence, you will discover, if these figures are correct, that the cotton growers of the South will pay more than double the amount of money, in the sale of a single crop, than the association proposes to raise by assessment for the purpose of establishing the lines, if the company should agree upon two per cent. as a tax sufficient to raise the capital stock. The planters not only lose in the sale of cotton, but the goods which they buy must be shipped from Europe, by the same circuitous route through the North, into the South, subject to the same freight, drayage and profits to the salesman, and all at the expense of the planters. By establishing these lines the planters must necessarily be benefitted, because transportation will be cheaper and the material will pass through the hands of a less number of men, which will lessen the commission on cotton and the profits on goods.

The establishment of these lines will secure gold for our cotton.

No man with any financial ability can be insensible to the dangers that threaten the currency of our country. A crash is inevitable without speedy retrenchment. We have had nearly four years of peace with a heavy system of taxation that is grinding us into the dust, and still this enormous income from almost every source and from almost every article of value in the land does not meet the reckless expenditures of the government, to say nothing of the interest upon the public debt. Many of us have lost thousands and some hundreds of thousands in currency by the casualties of war; and should not the past teach us a lesson upon this important subject? Let us establish the lines and then the hard earnings that we may accumulate by sweat and toil can be secured in a currency that will stand the test of fire and revolutions incident to all governments. The defiant declaration with a spirit of triumph was heard in the South immediately after the surrender that cotton is not king, it failed to secure foreign aid during the rebellion, and we have prevailed over our enemies. But the echo had scarcely died away before the admission in quick succession followed that gold is king. Yes, this yellow headed monarch, from the days of the Cæzars down to the present period, has wielded his sceptre over all civilized Empires and we are compelled to admit, notwithstanding our conscientious convictions in regard to blood and skin, that our ruler is a colored gentleman after all, and we propose by this plan to bring him down South—as he is capable of being made omnipresent—and crown him king, even among the rebels; hoping that the refined sensibilities of our people will not be too greatly shocked by the auspicious event. If this plan proves to be successful, and there is nothing to defeat it but a reckless indifference on the part of those who have the greatest interest in it, it will create competition between the European and the Northern markets. The superior quantity of the staple grown in the South over that of India, or any other country, will ever cause a demand for it abroad, and the planter will have nothing to do but demand the gold. If the Northern merchants will not give it, the European merchants will, and that will form the force of circumstances and leave us masters of the situation.

The establishment of these lines will secure laborers to cultivate our farms.

It is characteristic of the human family to avoid physical and mental labor, and as a general rule a necessity must exist before it can be secured. Under the old system of slavery, the master had the right, under the law, to compel his servant to labor; but now the servant is free and has less inclination to work than his former owner. His present wants and observation has taught us, as a general thing, is all that gives him any concern in this life. By such a course of indolence and the scarcity of other laborers in the South, many of our beautiful farms have gone to ruin, our houses are rapidly decaying, and destruction seems to be inevitable in every department. Relief from this dilemma is the great question of interest to all. How are we to control labor? In my opinion it can only be done by supplying the demand with emigrants from other countries, so that planters, when one will not work, can discharge him and procure another without danger of losing their crops. Heretofore when a freedman would not work according to his contract, if the planter should discharge him, he would be immediately reported to the Freedman's Bureau or the Loyal League, and the League would report him at Headquarters, a petition would be drawn up and forwarded post haste to Washington praying Congress to dispatch more troops to the South to put down the rebellion because the rights of freedmen are not respected. If this plan is adopted emigrants by hundreds and thousands will be brought into the country, and the idle and the indolent will be compelled to work or starve, and thus the reform which we so much need in the agricultural department will be effected and our State again restored to her former greatness and fertility.

Finally, gentlemen, if you should concur with me in the plan proposed after deliberation, permit me to ask you to suggest the names of such gentlemen of business capacity from various portions of the State, as will be suitable to include as original corporators in the proposed bill.

With high considerations of regard I remain respectfully your fellow citizen,

R. W. PHILLIPS,
Chairman Agricultural and Internal Improvement Committee.

IMPORTANT TO PLANTERS.—Nothing contributes more to the profits of good farming than the judicious use of fertilizers. It is well known that thousands of dollars are annually expended for worthless articles of this kind, which are imposed on the people in the absence of the ability to test their properties. From the use of inert preparations, many have abandoned them altogether, believing the whole system to be a cheat, when had they employed guanos and phosphates of the right kind, the result would have been most satisfactory. We would inform such of our farmers as wish to avail themselves of these invaluable aids to worn out and exhausted lands that, in future, they may avoid imposition. Professor Alexander Means, who is well and favorably known as one of the best chemists in the South, was, last summer, appointed by Governor Bullock inspector of these articles, for the port of Savannah, whence they are principally introduced into this State. The doctor, being a thorough chemist, will readily be enabled to detect all spurious articles attempted to be put upon the market. In future we would advise our planting friends, before purchasing fertilizers of any kind, to see that they bear the signature of Dr. Means' approval.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Our Senators Before Congress.

Gov. Bullock on the Admission of Georgia.

Proceedings of Congress.

Steamboat Burnt at Cincinnati.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The Supreme Court, headed by Chase, Evarts attending, visited the President.

The Supreme Court has a full Bench, except Greer.

The Georgia Senatorial question was warmly canvassed to-day. Hill's credentials only were presented. Miller will probably require removal of political disabilities, and it was thought best not to complicate Hill's credentials. The Republican party is divided on this question. Messrs. Ackerman, Bard, Sheer, and members of Congress, except Clift, urge Hill's admission. Gov. Bullock and Mr Blodgett, supported by Congressman Clift, urge delay.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue will, during the week, transmit to the President his recognition of the law, to take effect at the close of the present month.

It appears that Menard is here without credentials from the Governor.

It is stated to-day that the Colored Library Association addressed a note to Menard urging him to make no effort for a seat, as it would certainly work to general disadvantage.

Gov. Bullock addressed a communication to Congress representing that the laws of Congress under which Georgia was to be admitted into the Union were not fully complied with, and holding until such compliance Georgia's government must continue provisional. The failure lies in failing to exact from officers elected the oath prescribed by Congress and administering instead that provided by the proposed Georgia Constitution, which failure to execute the laws of Congress has resulted in the defeat of the purposes which Congress had in view in passing these acts viz: afford adequate protection for life and property and the maintenance of peace, good order and free expression of political opinion. The Governor states the wisdom displayed by Congress in providing that only loyal men would participate in the establishment of a Provisional Government, to be thereafter clothed with the rights and immunities of a State in the Union is made apparent by consequences arising from a failure to enforce that Legislation. The Governor calls the attention of Congress to this subject, to the end that steps be taken to obtain full information relative thereto and to the end that loyalty may be protected and promoted by the enforcement of the laws enacted by the representatives of the American people.

In the House there was one hundred and sixty-four members present.

Several new members were sworn in after the proceedings reported.

At noon the credentials of Mr. Hamilton, of Tennessee, for the State at large, were presented. His credentials were referred to the committee, and the privileges of the floor refused to Hamilton pending the decision.

Some half dozen bills and amendments to the Constitution, providing for the regulation of voting and naturalization in all the States, were presented and referred to the appropriate committees.

The Judiciary committee was directed to inquire what legislation is necessary to secure uniformity of compensation under the eight hour law.

A half dozen financial bills were referred.

The correspondence with Johnson, referring to the Alabama claims, was called for. A resolution censuring Johnson and demanding his recall was referred to the committee on Foreign Relations.

The committee appointed to wait on the President reported that the message would be transmitted at one o'clock on Wednesday.

The committee on Reconstruction was directed to examine into Georgia affairs, with power to send for persons and papers.

Mullins introduced a bill to suppress the Ku Klux by national authority and declaring members outlaws, which was referred to Judiciary committee.

Representative Tift, of Georgia presented a memorial of the Georgia Legislature, asking the removal of political disabilities of all citizens. Referred to the Reconstruction Committee.

Kellogg, of Alabama, introduced a bill to improve the Mobile Harbor. Referred to the Committee on Commerce.

A bill was introduced, providing for an election in Virginia in January. Referred to the Reconstruction Committee.

A Preamble and resolution repealing the Tenure of Office Bill was tabled.

The Reconstruction Committee was directed to inquire into the condition of Virginia, Texas and Mississippi, and report what legislation was necessary to support life and property.

Senate.—Sherman presented Senator Hill's credentials.

Drake objected. He would never admit Representatives from the reconstructed States, wherein the supremacy of loyal men was overthrown. He contended that Congress had the right to see the reconstruction law enforced.

Sherman insisted that Hill's presence here would help to cure the wrong.

Thayer said the real ground of difficulty was that the Georgia Legislature was an illegal body and requested the reading of the communication from Governor Bullock in substantiation of his statements.

Various documents were read opening up the whole question, when the matter was postponed to Wednesday.

Rice, of Arkansas, introduced a bill requiring the Secretary of War to deliver to the Governors of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Louisiana and Arkansas, at their respective seats of Government, as many arms for the militia as the Governors may require not exceeding two thousand rifles and two field pieces for each Congressional District. These arms must go into the hands of loyal men, but remain the property of the United States, subject to the order of Congress.

Several financial, naturalization and suffrage bills were introduced.

Adjourned.

The certificate of division in the United States District Court for Virginia was filed in the Clerk's office of the Supreme Court to-day.

NEW ORLEANS, December 7.—The first race over the Metaire course to-day was a dash of two miles for a club purse of $300. Bettie Bay beat Jack Gamble in 4:06. The second race was a match half mile for $1,000, won by Nannie McNairy in 54½. Third race, two entres, mile heats, best three in five, purse $600; Joe Johnson 1-1-1; Bismarck was distanced in the third heat. Time 4¼-159.

Rio Grande files to December first have been received. They say the Tamalapa insurgents under Vargar Caballeo, and others, are very active, but as yet have made no movement of much military importance. The small and isolated bodies in the State force are unable to cope with them, but Escobedo is marching with the third division of the national army on Matamoras, where he will re-organize for a vigorous campaign. The Brownsville Sentinel says Vargar's men are committing atrocious outrages. Zenobias Dias, formerly an officer of Quriogas, has pronounced against the State Government.

Bosque is reported to have crossed the Rio Grande with men, arms and ammunition. The States of Queretaro and Jalipso is reported again in revolution. Lozed is reported to be in command of 15,600, expecting a pronunciamento from the Marquis.

Cortina has been ordered to Tamalipas with his whole command, which are encamped about sixty miles from San Luis Potosi, the earth was shaken many times in quick succession. The mountain near commenced eruption, and Cortina renewed the march hastily. The inhabitants of San Luis fear a new volcano is about to break out near that city, the air being full of ashes and smoke, and the earth shaking with subterraneous noises.

An earth quake shock was felt in Mexico on the 6th of November. It was also felt at Puebla. Shocks were also felt for three days at Iturbide; another new volcano is feared there.

CINCINNATI, December 7.—The steamer D. M. Sechen was burned at the wharf by the bursting of a lamp. No lives lost.

SAVANNAH, December 7.—Brodbaker, who was shot and killed by negroes on Saturday last, was buried to-day. The fire companies and German associations turned out in force. Two of the wounded patrolmen are in a very critical condition. The excitement has somewhat subsided, though more arrests have been made.

CONSTANTIOPLE, December 7.—The Sultan has decided to act virgorously against Greece, should the Cretan assistance continue. Unless Greece gives re-assuring guarantees, commercial and diplomatic relations will cease.

YOUNG MEN.—It should be the aim of young men to go into good society—we do not mean the rich, nor the proud, or the fashionable, but the society of the wise, the intelligent, and the good. Where you find men who know more than you do, and from whose conversation you can gather information, it is always safe to be found. It has broken down many a man by associating with the low and vulgar, where the ribald song was inculcated and the indecent story told, to excite laughter or influence the bad passions. Lord Clarendon attributed success and happiness in life to associate with persons more learned and virtuous than ourselves. If you wish to be wise and respected, and desire happiness and not misery, we advise you to associate with the intelligent and good. Strive for excellence and strict integrity, and you will never be found in the sinks of pollution, or on the benches of revilers and gumbrels. Once habituate yourselves to a virtuous course, once secure a love for good society, and no punishment would be greater than by accident to be obliged for a half day, to associate with the low and vulgar.

DAN CASTELLO
WITH HIS HERD OF
WAR CAMELS
Are Coming! Are Coming!
The Greatest and Most
NOVEL FEATURE of the AGE!
Will Exhibit at Atlanta,
MONDAY, DECEMBER 14th,
Admission 75 Cents; Children under 10 years of age 50 Cents.

Mr. Dan Castello takes pleasure in announcing to the citizens of the South that, to give increased attraction to his already vast combination of talent and attractions, he has imported a HERD OF ABYSSINIAN WAR CAMELS, or, War Ships of the Desert, at a cost of over forty thousand dollars ($40,000), and which will be attached to the CHARIOT OF THEODORE This Chariot has been pronounced the most beautiful piece of workmanship, and was built from designs and suggestions made by an officer of the British army, who served during the Abyssian and Indian wars, and bears upon its centre a colossal statute of the GOLDEN HORSE OF TARTARY, and elegantly carved, and surrounded by elegant Banners, Flags and Streamers, Camel, Lion and animal heads.

Each performances will commence with a grand and entirely new Arabian Nights Carnival, entitled THE REVOLT OF THE HAREM. In which will be introduced Camels, Arabs, Ladies, Gentlemen, Children to the number of One Hundred, with gorgeous costumes, rich paraphernalia and costly trappings and properties.

DAN CASTELLO'S
Great Show
AND
Abyssinian Caravan!

Fourth Annual Tour of the Great Equestrian Establishment which is well known throughout the country as the

LEADING CIRCUS IN AMERICA

And which during the present season, with its new and magnificent features never before presented in this country, will be be enabled to offer entertainments of marked originality and exciting interest far surpassing anything hitherto witnessed on this side of the Atlantic. The public appreciation of the performance given by Dan Castello's GREAT SHOW in the South, and also during its summer tours, has stimulated the management to renewed exertions, and it is confidently asserted, beyond the power of contradiction, that the performance of this Troupe, during the present season, will be found far superior to any ever given on the Continent. This company is, in every respect, THE BEST IN THE WORLD, there being no Equestrian establishment on the Eastern Hemisphere whose performances are so novel, recherche, refined and artistic, and which have evoked such admiration and astonishment in all the specialties of the arena.

The following eminent artists are Dan Castello's new Star Troupe. Two champion bare-back riders in the ring at the same time, CHAS. FISH and SIG SEBASTIAN.

This is an unprecedented combination, affording the public an opportunity to witness two Star Bare Back Riders in the arena at the same time, and whose acts are entirely different and dissimilar, and who will each be stimulated to greater sets of daring to out-herald each other in acts of horsemanship.

M'lle De Berg,

The Phenomena Equestrienne, from France, whose wonderful and graceful equitations have won for her the title of the Champion Lady Rider, and who will appear in each performance in her daring acts of horsemanship.

YOUNG ROMEO The Boy Wonder, who is one of the most graceful and Juvenile riders of the age, and whose daring and intrepidness of horsema ship, warrant the management in challenging the world that his equal in the profession is not of the present day, to the amount of $5,000.

JAMES COOKE, the greatest Rider and Vaulter in this country.

SIG. MONTEVERDI and SIG FERANTIO, two wonderful contortionists.

THE LEOTARD BROTHERS who, in the contest of the Acrobatic Gymnasts of all nations, in Paris, were awarded the Gold Medal as Champion Gymnasts of the world.

LA PETITE JOSEPHINE, the Cupid Rider.

MASTER GEORGE, the Daring and Dashing Hurdle Rider.

MR DAN CASTELLO, the popular Jester of the age, who has met with unbounded success East, West, North and South, who will introduce his troupe of Educated Horses, Ponies and Mules, consisting of the far-famed Russian Horse

CZAR!

The Comic Trick Horse FIRE FLY and highly educated Mules TIMOTHY and ARTEMAS WARD together with his troupe of Shetland

PONIES.

THE GRAND STREET PAGEANT will leave the Mammoth Pavilion which covers over one acre of ground and which will comfortably accommodate 5,000 persons, at 11 A.M. each day.

Performances will commence Afternoon at 2 o'clock; Evening at 7½ o'clock.

NOTICE—In order to accommodate Heads of Families, Ladies and Children, and those that wish to avoid the crowd at the Ticket Wagon, can procure them at the National, United States and American Hotels, and Phillips & Crew's Book Store. dec8-d3t

The Daily Constitution.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, DECEMBER 8.

THE CITY.

THE FIRST OF THE SEASON.—A slight snow fell yesterday morning.

TEN SMALL FARMS.—This morning at 10 o'clock, Col. G. W. Adair will sell the Alms House property at his office. See advertisement and plats.

DO NOT forget the 'Hop of the Social Club to-night at the Hall of the House of Representatives. This Club is composed of young ladies and gentlemen, and the Hop is given for social amusement.

JOHN TEMPLETON AGAIN.—The above gentleman, with a company of extraordinary artists, will be in our city and commence a series of performances on Thursday or Friday next. He offers attractive bills. We bespeak for him good houses.

MR. S. DE ANTHONY has one of the largest Fancy Grocery establishments in the city. There is nothing nice to eat but what he has large quantities of. Mr. F. Corra is with Mr. Anthony. Mr. Corra has been in the same business for some time, and has made many friends by polite and gentlemanly deportment. Call and see the huge quantities of nice things for Christmas.

ELECTORAL COLLEGE.—The Electoral College met yesterday at 12 M., at the State House. Present, Gen. John B. Gordon, Hon. John T. Clarke, Hon. John C. Nichols, Col. Charles T. Goode, R. J. Moses, A. G. Bacon, H. P. Bell, Col. James D. Waddell. Absent, Major J. B. Cumming. General John B. Gordon was elected President of the College, and Marshall J. Clarke, Esq., Secretary. The College then adjourned until 12 M., Wednesday, unless sooner convened by the President.

IMPORTANT TO EVERYBODY.—John M. Gannon is now opening at his one price Dry Goods Store, corner Whitehall and Hunter streets, the largest and cheapest stock of goods that he has ever offered to the people of Atlanta and vicinity. He has a buyer in New York every day in the year, who is at all times prepared to take advantage of any decline that may take place in dry goods. Gannon's motto is one price, quick sales, and small profits. All goods warranted.—The one price system insures fair dealing to everybody. A splendid line of new goods will be opened Monday, Nov. 30th. For particulars, see advertisement elsewhere. nov29 d1m.

IMPORTANT ARRIVAL.—Col. Deckhert, of the Hagerstown (Md.) Mail, accompanied by a company of some twenty gentlemen from Maryland and Pennsylvania, arrived in this city last evening, and put up at the Globe and Planters' Hotels. These gentlemen are on their way to Atlanta, for substantial purposes, and we recommend them to the good offices of our people. We trust that on their return towards the North they may be induced to stop long enough in Augusta to find out some of its important advantages. If possible we should prefer to have them pause with us awhile, prior to further progress through the State. There are many things worthy of their serious attention in this city, and we trust they may be prevailed upon to investigate our local advantages in the way of material progress.—Augusta Constitutionalist, 5th.

The party alluded to above have not yet reached this city. On their arrival we trust our people will cordially welcome them, and extend to them the hospitalities of the city. Once familiar with the many advantages of Atlanta, they will see that above all other cities in the South, it offers the greatest inducements to parties on the look out for homes and investments in the South.

☞ The New York Herald, through its industrious correspondents, has been publishing of late the views of a number of prominent Republicans upon the issues now before the country. Interviews have been had with Senators Sherman, Morton, Cameron, Sumner, Butler and Bingham and others of the House.

The Herald concludes a general summary of the views and opinions thus given to the public in the following language:

"It has, perhaps, been noted that in these reflections of the views of public men they all agree about reconstruction and disagree to a greater or less extent, about the finances. This is significant that, politically, the country is to have rest; and we can agree with Simon Cameron that this alone would secure all good results, and would even pay the national debt—if it were left to do it. Unfortunately, the singular differences among our public men are found to hold in regard to the finances indicate that it probably will not be so left. It should be observed, however, that the crudest views on money affairs are held in quarters where they can do least harm, and that men holding such important positions as the chairman of the Senate Committee on Finance bring to the national service the ample thought and practical wisdom of the best statesmanship."

OUR RELATIONS WITH ENGLAND.—It is rumored in diplomatic circles, says the Washington Star, that this Government does not accept the protocol for the arrangement of our difficulties with Great Britain forwarded by Minister Johnson; and that amendments to it were forwarded by cable after the Cabinet meeting on Friday.

"DAY DAWNING."—Under this head the Arkansas Gazette announces the fact that one Democrat has been admitted to his seat in the Legislature of that State.

REVOLUTIONARY DESIGNS CONFESSED.—The New York Times closes an editorial article on the proposition to amend the Constitution so as to allow Congress to enact universal suffrage for the States, with the following language:

"The proposed amendment, if made, will certainly work a radical change in the nature and character of the government. The government may be better, or worse than it now is under the Constitution; but it will not be the same. It will be more a government of the nation and less a government of State; it will be more consolidated in actual power, as well as in its forms and modes of action; and it will approach, in some essential respects, more nearly to the imperial form of a Democratic government than many will think either wise or safe. We are inclined, however, to believe that it will obviate more serious evils than it will cause; and the tendency of political sentiment is clearly and strongly just now in that direction.

DISRAELI'S MODESTY.—Mr. Disraeli, it appears, has declined a title and a peerage offered him by the Crown, but has consented to transfer the honor to his wife, who is hereafter to be known as Viscountess of Beaconfields. Sir Robert Peel, it is known, always refused a higher title than that of Baronet, preferring to send his hame down to posterity allied with his deeds as a statesman and a premier. Lord John Russell coquetted a long time with the earldom before he accepted it and gave up his leadership of the Liberal party in the House of Commons to take his seat among the Peers. Mr. Disraeli's modesty stands by him now, but should his popularity be seriously diminished and power remain long out of his handa, he may yet be tempted to acknowledge her majesty's kindness and slip quietly into the upper house with some fine old Oriental title revived for the occasion.—N. Y. Herald.

PERSONAL.—Hon. John Erskine leaves the city to-day by the steamer San Jacinto, to visit his family, who are not at present in Georgia. We learn that he will return to Atlanta in the course of two or three weeks.—Sav. Republican.

EXCITING, PROMPT AND SUCCESSFUL REVOLUTION

IN THE

Boot and Shoe Business!

—BY—

M. O. MARKHAM,
Successor to HENRY BANKS, at the well known stand
EMPIRE BLOCK, WHITEHALL STREET,
ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

HAVING purchased the entire stock of Mr. BANKS (except such goods as did not come up to the highest standard for excellence) consisting of BOOTS, SHOES, LEATHER, SHOE FINDINGS, &c., &c., to which there is being added an immense supply of NEW MATERIAL, in quality the best and quantity without limit, fresh from the most celebrated manufactories in the land I, am fully prepared to offer superior inducements to buyers everywhere, as well as to the trade.

I call urgently upon everybody to come and examine my splendid stock. If it is possible to please, I can do it.

1868. DRY GOODS. 1868.

Fall and Winter Dry Goods.

JOHN M. GANNON,

(Corner WHITEHALL and HUNTER Streets,)

IS just in receipt of the following splendid line of Goods, which he has carefully selected, and will dispose of at prices that cannot fail to give satisfaction:

DRESS GOODS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION,

A great variety of Cloaks and Shawls; a splendid line of Blankets and Flannels; a full stock of Hosiery, Handkerchiefs, Embroideries, Breakfast Shawls, Nubias, Scarfs, Ladies' Under Vests, Gloves, Hoops and Balmoral Skirts, Irish Linens, Birds' Eye Diapers, Table Linen, Scotch Diaper, Crash, Broad Cloths, Cassimeres, English Tweeds, Satinets, Kentucky and North Carolina Jeans, Prints, Sheetings, Shirtings, Demins, Stripes, Tickings, Osnaburgs, Linseys, Drills, Checks and everything kept in a first class Dry Goods store.

ONE PRICE ONLY.

It affords me pleasure to be able to state that this system has been a complete success and gives general satisfaction to my customers. For the benefit of those who have not been in the habit of doing business with me, I state that there is only one price for every article sold in my store, so that there is no danger of any person being overcharged for goods under any circumstances—in other words—a child can purchase goods in my store as cheap as the closest judge. I wish it distinctly understood that if any goods purchased in my establishment fail to come up to representation, they can be returned and the money will be refunded.

All consumers of dry goods are invited to call and examine my stock before purchasing elsewhere

A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY!

Darby's Prophylactic Fluid!

The Country is Waking up to its Merits!

What About It!

It will purify the most offensive atmosphere.
It will cleanse and cure Erysipelas, all sorts of sores, ulcers, boils, cuts, wounds, etc.
It will prevent gangrene.
It will cure burns, scalds, and bruises.
It is a perfect pain-killer.
It will destroy and neutralize all animal and vegetable poisons.
It will, therefore, cure stings or bites of insects.
It will cleanse and purify the breath, and hence is an excellent tooth-wash and healthful cosmetic.
It will cure diarrhœa, even the worst chronic case.
It will instantly cure horses of the colic or persons of heartburn.
It will, owing to the bleaching properties of Chlorine, remove all ink spots, mildew, vegetable stains, &c.
It will cure Catarrh.
It will remove rancidity out of butter and lard.
It will, properly used, be more efficacious than any other agent in preventing the spread of contagious diseases, and has frequently done it.
It will, used in bathing, keep the skin healthy, soft and white.
We pledge whatever reputation we may have as honest, truthful gentlemen for the performance of all here claimed for the article and more too.
It is used everywhere by the medical profession as fast as it is introduced, and we respectfully refer to all prominent men of the profession, from very many of whom we have the highest testimonials of praise for the Fluid.
As a convenient article for constant family use it has no superior.
It has a beautiful color, and when the color is gone the virtues of the Fluid are lost. Hence be careful not to get the cork in the bottle of any animal or vegetable substance, and always keep the bottle stopped. After the Fluid has acted the residium is perfectly inert and harmless.
It is taken internally as well as applied externally.
It is cheap, selling only at 50 cents per bottle of half pint.

Everybody Uses it and Praises It! True Merit is the Foundation of its Success!!

Read Some of the Testimony!

Letter from Hon. Alex. A. Stephens, of Ga.]
CRAWFORDSVILLE, GA., 29th Sept. 1868.
Darby's Prophylactic Fluid is an article of little cost, but great value. Its domestic as well as medicinal uses are numerous, while its specialties are most wonderful. I have not been without it for ten years, and no head of a family who can afford to have it should be without it.
ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS.

Letter from Hon. A. J. Walker, Montgomery, Ala., Ex Chief Justice Supreme Court of Ala.]
I have for many years used Darby's Prophylactic Fluid, and have found it exceedingly valuable—I recommend it to the public confidence as highly useful for the various purposes to which it is applied. A. J. WALKER.
Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 1868.

Letter from Rev. Jefferson Hamilton, D D., Mobile, Ala., Minister M. E. Church, South.]
My family have used Darby's Prophylactic Fluid for several years for various purposes, and esteem it very highly. Indeed, I know of no article within the whole range of Chemical preparations so generally and highly recommended by acquaintances as this. J. HAMILTON.
MOBILE, Ala., Sept, 28, 1868.

Letter from Prof. R. T. Brumby, Marietta, Ga.]
I was fifteen years Professor of Chemistry, &c., in the Univ. of Alabama, and eight years in the Univ. of S. C., and I am convinced that Prof. Darby's Prophylactic Fluid possesses all the merit he claims for it. It is very generally known and appreciated in all the Southern States, and is sold by nearly all Southern druggists.
R. T. BRUMBY.
MARIETTA, Ga., Oct. 1868.

From Rev. John Matthews, Pastor M. E. South, at Montgomery, Ala.]
MONTGOMERY, ALA., Oct. 23, 1868.
Darbys' Prophylactic Fluid is the only medicine kept in my family. We use it for almost everything—burns, bruises, stings, earache, sour stomach, &c., &c. My children, when hurt or bruised, always call at once for Darby's Fluid. We cannot get along well without it.
JOHN MATHEWS.

From W. O Tuggle, Esq., Attorney at Law, La Grange, Ga.]
LAGRANGE, GA., Oct. 21, 1868.
I take pleasure in stating that I have found "Darby's Prophylactic Fluid to be an excellent remedy for cutaneous eruptions, chapped skin and bruises. It is a priceless jewel as a disinfectant, and my wife states, for the benefit of young mothers, that "Darby's Fluid" is a valuable adjunct to the nursery. W. O. TUGGLE.

From J. H. Heustis, M. D., Mobile, Ala., Prof. Mobile Medical College.]
MOBILE, ALA., Oct. 19, 1868.
I have used your Chlorinated Fluid in Hospital and private practice for ten years, and know of nothing better for sloughing, contused and lacerated wounds, foul and indolent ulcers, and as a disinfectant. J. F. HEUSTIS, M. D.

These are but a few of the most recent testimonials received in behalf of the preparation.
It is as useful in winter as in summer, for its disinfecting quality is the least of its really valuable uses.
It is neatly put up in half pint bottles, and sells at 50 cents per bottle.
All Druggists keep it.

Verses in My Old Age.

BY BARRY CROMWELL.

Come, from the ends of the world,
  Wind of the air or sky,
Wherever the thunder is hurled,
  Wherever the lightings fly!
Come, with the bird on your bosom,
  [Linnet or lark that soars],
Come with the sweet spring blossom,
  And the sun from the Southern shores.

I hate the snake Winter that creepeth,
  And poisons the buds of May;
I shout to the sun who sleepeth,
  And pray him awake to-day,
For the world is in want of his power,
  To vanquish the rebel storm;
And wait for his golden hour,
  Man and beast and worm.

Not only the seasons, failing
  Forsake their natural tone,
But Age droops onward, sailing
  And is lost in the seas unknown,
No wisdom redeemeth his sorrow,
  For thought and strength are fled;
No hope enlightens to-morrow,
  And the Past (so loved) is dead!
    Dead! Dead!

THE NEW QUEENS OF THE LONDON DEMI-MONDE.—Go through the principal streets and you will see that humbug and imposture prevail in no less private life. Everywhere one portrait now strikes the eye. It is that of a beautiful young girl, fair and modest to all appearance, and evidently occupying a high position. She is in half the albums one opens, and soon will be in the other half—so rapidly is she becoming the vogue. Underneath the portrait you will find written the name "Mabel Grey." And who is Mabel Grey? Some young lady who has distinguished herself? Yes, truly, but not in the way that honest women could bear to think of. Mabel Grey is the present queen of the demi-monde. She holds a sort of official drawing-room every night at a casino in Holborn, and thither richly dressed women flock to pay her court and envy her. The death of Mabel Grey's predecessor in Paris is announced—and now the new "Anonyma" is installed. You go to the theater, and there in a private box, accompanied by men who keep in the background, is a lady attired in a magnificent dress and covered with diamonds. Her necklace might constitute a King's ransom—there are rings enough on her fingers to purchase a princely estate. The face is beautiful and intelligent. This is Mabel Grey, over whose portrait half England is going crazy.

The thing takes, and now by the side of Mabel Grey there appears another face, scarcely less beautiful, and this is known as "Marion Lee." As I go home through Kensington, it happens to me very frequently to meet a young person of faultless figure, though short in stature, riding from the park. Her groom follows on a perfect bit of horse-flesh. Then if I chance to take a stroll in the Burlington Arcade in the afternoon, (of course on my way to a club,) I see the same young person, dressed in velvet and Russian sables, and with one of two cavaliers by her side. She is not yet quite the rage of the town, but "Marion Lee" is on the high road to "splendid infamy." You will see their portraits side by side in every lady's album. Their brothers attend her "drawing-rooms" at a different saloon. Will any one say, then, that religion, morality, and social progress are not prospering more than ever in the midst of this vast and ever-growing city?—Correspondence of the New York Times.

FACTS TO BE HEEDED—The Necessity and Value of Newspaper Advertising.—If a broad and brilliant archway of light, as full of splendor as a rainbow, spanned the heavens, each end resting on either ocean, shrewd, thoughtful tradesmen would pay enormous sums to have their names inscribed on this veritable "bow of promise." Such is the newspaper press. Its lettering never grows dim, a continent is overshadowed by its broad expanse, and millions read its varied inscriptions. By such means the amount of sales is augmented, and capital is rapidly "turned over," and thus it happens that they who advertise most sell most, and therefore always sell most cheaply. The merchant who re-invests his capital every month can afford to sell goods and wares for one-twelfth the profit charged by the slow dealer, who never advertises, and sells out only once a year. The more the merchant sells the oftener he re-invests his money, and the cheaper become his goods. It has therefore been found by farmers that they buy the cheapest goods from those who advertise most. Placards and show bills constitute very proper modes of advertising; but no means of giving notoriety to any fact is equally successful with that to which newspaper advertisers resort. Each day, the fifteen or twenty thousand subscribers to the newspapers read the story, and the five borrowers to each subscriber make the number of readers quite sixty thousand. Through days and weeks the advertisement goes forth, and each day a new class of men is reached by the ubiquitous newspaper. The name and number of the house advertised becomes so well known to each reader, and every inquirer for goods is sent to the place made familiar by the newspaper. The newspaper invades every household in the city and every village on every railway line. In the country it is preserved with sedulous care, and passes from one household to another. Standing cards thus wear grooves in the memories of the people, and when they visit the city the name and number, never forgotten, gather purchasers.—St. Louis Times

BEECHER TALKING POLITICS AND EATING DINNER.—Before going to the dinner table the subject of American politics had been discussed between Mr. Beecher and his guest, and the conversation was resumed as soon as grace had been said, with an interest which bid fair to supersede the ordinarily important act of dining. The soup dispatched, it was some time before enough of the joint was carved to serve the guest, and then a long pause in the helping came, while my host, with carving-knife and fork in hand, expatiated upon the pending issues of the coming election. "Henry, my dear," said Mrs. Beecher, "you're forgetting the dinner." Another was helped, then more pausing, and more earnest, eloquent discourse about the political situation; fresh reminders about dinner; a proposal from me to postpone politics until after dinner, which elicted a "Can't be done; never mind dinner; we've got into the subject now, and it's better than dinner." The negro suffrage question, universal suffrage in the abstract, woman suffrage, the foreign influence in American politics, and the prospects of the Presidential campaign, were dilated on, and what was said so absorbed me that I couldn't find out how the stuffed veal tasted or the egg-plant—a novelty to me; didn't know whether I had eaten enough or too little, and rose from the table in a sort of bewildering maze, unable to decide whether I had been taking a meal or hearing a fascination lecture. Mr. Beecher is a splendid talker. On any subject that interests him, he fires up and corruscates in private just as he does in public. His gems of poetry and eloquence are not carefully ground up and polished by the lapidary's process, but bursts naturally and brilliantly like the final splendors of a rocket. As I listened, it seemed to me that thoughts, illustrations and phrases, quite equal to anything I had heard from his lips in the pulpit or read from his pen, dropped from him in conversation.—A Canadian Clergyman.

THE POLITICAL REVOLUTION IN AUGUSTA.—Augusta has had a gay time over the election of a Democratic Mayor and Council. Even the Radicals themselves have taken the ruinous defeat good naturedly. The fact is, it was so unexpected and yet so perfect, complete and overwhelming that the contest, looking back upon it, wore somewhat of a ludicrous aspect. The Augusta election ought to be about the last effort in Georgia to maintain an African ascendency. If it could not be done there with the aid of sharp leaders—the patronage of the city government, and a minority of several hundred white Radicals, it will be difficult to accomplish it any where else in the State.—Macon Telegraph.

THE CONSTITUTION,

DAILY AND WEEKLY,

ATLANTA, GEORGIA'

BY W. A. HEMPHILL & CO.

DAILY, PER ANNUM	$10 00
" SIX MONTHS	5 00
" ONE MONTH	1 00

WEEKLY, PER ANNUM	$3 00
" SIX MONTHS	1 50
" THREE MONTHS	1 00

THE CONSTITUTION is intensely DEMOCRATIC and neither pains, enterprise, nor money will be spared, in the efforts of the Proprietors, to make it a leading organ, and one of the first papers in the South.

THE CONSTITUTION has scarcely laid aside its baptismal robes, and yet its circulation is equal to, if not greater, than any political paper in Georgia. This unparalleled success is mainly attributable to the industry and enterprise which have characterized its management.

As its name imports, it is battling for the Constitution and the liberties of the people; and the patronage it has received, assures the Proprietors that their labors are appreciated, and their policy endorsed.

As an advertising medium, THE CONSTITUTION is, perhaps, superior to any paper published in the State, its circulation being confined to no particular locality, but extending from one end of the State to the other, and from the Savannah to the Chattahoochee.

The Proprietors intend no relaxation of their energy, but will add new features of interest and more vigorous enterprise as patronage increases; and they hope in future, as in the past, to merit the good will and plaudits of their numerous eaders.

The excellent remedies of O. S. Prophitt, M. D., need no recommendation. Their well known power in removing the diseases peculiar to our Southern Climate, having already established for them an enviable reputation in Georgia and the adjoining States. As the majority of persons living in the South are pre-disposed to disease of the Liver, it is granted by all intelligent physicians that most of the pains and aches of our people are due to organic or functional derangement of that important organ. Prophitt's Anti-Bilious Pills and Liver Medicine strike directly at the root of the evil. They cure the Liver which, in nine cases out of ten, is at the bottom of the Coughs, Dyspepsia, Colic, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Constipation, Menstrual Obstructions, etc., so common among our people. Earache Toothache, Acute Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and bodily pains of every kind, flee before PROPHITT'S PAIN KILL IT like chaff before the wind.

What one hundred letters a day say from patients all over the habitable globe:—
Dr. Maggiel, your pill has rid me of all biliousness.
No more noxious doses for me in five or ten pills taken at one time. One of your pills cured me.
Thanks, Doctor. My headache has left me. Send me another box to keep in the house.
After suffering torture from bilious colic, two of your pills cured me, and I have no return of the malady.
Our doctors treated me for Chronic Constipation as they called it, and at last said I was incurable. Your Maggiel's Pills cured me.
I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one.
Your pills are marvelous.
I send for another box, and keep them in the house.
Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic.
I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear young thing got well in a day.
My nauseau of a morning is now cured.
Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some Salve behind my ears and the noises left.
Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family.
I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar.
Send me five boxes of your pills.

NEWSPAPER FOR SALE!
THE ALBANY
TRI-WEEKLY NEWS
IS OFFERED FOR SALE!
FINDING IT IMPOSSIBLE TO RUN BOTH THE CONSTITUTION and the NEWS, without total neglect to one or the other, I propose to sell the latter.
The NEWS is in a flourishing condition, having a liberal Circulation, and as much Advertising Patronage as it can accommodate. It has yielded handsome profits since I purchased it in October last; and in practical hands, with vigor in its editorial management, can be made the best paying paper in Georgia. There is a well appointed
Job Office Attached,
And the Job Work of the City will run the establishment if rightly managed.
There are two PRESSES, one of Hoe's Drum Cylinder, and one Washington Hand Press, all in order, and material enough to run a Daily and Weekly. I will sell on liberal terms if application is made within Thirty Days.
Address CAREY W. STYLES,
CONSTITUTION OFFICE, Atlanta, Ga.,
or STYLES & EVANS,
Albany, Ga.
☞ The Press requested to notice.

SAVANNAH REPUBLICAN,
Daily and Weekly,
By J. R. SNEED.
THE undersigned is pleased to announce to his friends and the public that he has again come in possession of this time-honored journal, and expects to devote his entire time to making it, as a newspaper, second to none in the South. The liberal patronage of the past and better years, while the REPUBLICAN was under his charge, encourages him to hope that by prompt and continued support the public will enable him to carry this purpose into effect.
To the MERCHANTS of the South, and especially of his own State, he looks with confidence for a general support, promising them, in return, the best news, commercial and political journal that his experience and capabilities can produce.
The Weekly Republican,
Designed more especially for the planting community, and others who have not the privilege of a daily mail, will be found to contain all the news of the week condensed into a small compass, and by the close of the year we expect to issue it on a large and imperial sheet of eight pages, to contain more reading matter than any paper in the South.
TERMS:

Daily, One Year	$10 00
" Six Months	5 00
" For a less time (per month)	1 00
Weekly per Year	3 00

N. B. Payment in advance for either edition will be required, without exception.
All letters should be addressed as below.
